

Depository Library Spotlight for November

In continuation with GPO's commitment to highlight services that depository libraries are performing for their users, we are pleased to announce the Depository Library Spotlight for the month of November 2009 is the Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library at the University of Washington School of Law. The Gallagher Law Library, which has strong support for public access to Federal depository legal and other U.S. Government information resources, is the first law library featured in the Depository Library Spotlight.

By spotlighting the expert services and contributions of our depositories, we share in the strengths and innovations of our partners and help promote the essential American service that is the Federal Depository Library Program.
